Style Checklist

Stash your terry-cloth cover-ups. The cut of the moment is a sheer, high-skimming caftan. For more sand style, flip to page 234.

Set your mane ablaze. Full-blown red hair hues like Desperate Housewives' Marcia Cross's are very this second.

New semi-permanent dyes quell commitment-phobe fears.

A cool way to cover your butt

Shop like the stars. Love the snarky talking tees and badass jeans that stars wear? Score the celeb faves at www.shopkitson.com and www.shopintuition.com.

Score coral. Look for branching, tree-like formations on necklaces, shoes, and dresses. Another slammin' way to wear coral is on page 244.

Be a million-dollar babe.

Reef madness has struck the fashion world.
